Christmas Newsletter

All4Paws is a charity run by students of the Royal (Dick) School of Veterinary Studies which provides free monthly veterinary clinics for the pets of the homeless and vulnerably housed in Edinburgh

A Staffie's Trip Abroad

A patient of ours is one of the sweetest, friendliest dogs that you will ever meet, but he is not just that! He is a highly trained medical detection dog trained to detect strokes. He plays an incredibly important role in his owner's life allowing him to live a normal independent life as well as saving it on multiple occasions! His owner is going to live with family abroad for the foreseeable future, but unfortunately does not have the funds to take his life saving dog with him. For those who don't know, taking your dog abroad is not cheap! There are certain requirements you need due to the pet passport scheme such as a rabies vaccine, microchip, bloods, and tapeworm treatment.

We are very proud to say that thanks to the donations we have received, we have been able to assist this adorable Staffie so he can travel with his owner and continue his lifesaving work.

Christmas Gifts for Dog Lovers

This was the brilliant idea of our fundraisers Emma Little and Olivia Donoghue where you could donate a dog toy, food, bed or vaccination in the name of a friend or family member to make a massive difference in a well deserving dog's life. What more could you want for Christmas! We are more than happy to say that this has been a massive success. This has lead to 8 dogs having warm places to sleep and 5 dogs been able to be vaccinated. This makes such a massive difference to the dog's health and welfare! So thank you to everyone who gave or received a donation gift this year, you have helped to make a dog's Christmas a merry one!

An absolutely massive thank you!

We have been overwhelmed by everyone's generosity this year. The donations we have had have been incredible and helped us to make a difference to countless dogs lives. We have been able to keep them warm with dog coats and fed with all the donations of food you have given us. We would just like to say that we couldn't do the job we do without your amazing support and help so thank you! Very Merry Christmas from all of us here at All4Paws
